Thirty becarloads of artillery amountion  The properties of a special purpose amountion of a report of a special purpose amountion of a special purpose amountion of a special purpose amountion of a special purpose amountion. From conversation of sevice dept properties of a special purpose amountion. From conversation of Sevice dept personnels.  Thirty becarloads of artillery amountion  Thirty becarloads of artillery amountion  The properties of a special purpose amountion. From conversation of Sevice dept personnels.  The properties of a special purpose amountion was of a unique type. It is described as a locay projectic 300 nm long and 400 nm in diameter and with a detachable warhoad, 300 nm long. The various series to certain 25 several layers of shramel balls, about 10 nm in diameter, specked in adding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by backlite or celluloid plates. The trarbad is also provided with a time face.  The projectite is allocated filled with an explosive which is stored at the amountion of special purpose amountion of sevice and time dept properties of its longer and clameter is unusual. As the amountion is designed for a heavy properties are allocated with a time face.  The projectite is allocated filled with an explosive which is stored at the amountion of selection and the advance of the 2s amount to a special purpose amount to a sessibility that the arountion is designed for a bacy portar having a short barrel. During ords are it as not in the designed for a bacy properties and the season are all the designed for a bacy properties and the season are all the designed for a bacy properties and the season are all the designed for a bacy properties and the season are all the designed for a bacy properties and the season are all the designed for a bacy properties and the season are all the designed for a bacy properties and the season are all the season are		Approved For Role 2000 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 10	011600390002-3
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY INFORMATION REPORT CD NO  ZEXT  COUNTRY  Germany (Russian Zone)  DATE DISTR 8 May 1952  CHACE CQUIRED  PLACE CQUIRED  25X1  NO. OF PAGES 1  Wilmersdorf Administion Depot  NO. OF PAGES 1  AND OF PAGES 1  SUPPLEMENT TO  25X1  NO. OF PAGES 1  AND OF PAGES 1  AND OF PAGES 1  SUPPLEMENT TO  25X1  Thirty becombined of artillery argumention and 2h recognition in the supplementation of a state of a recognition of a state of a special-nurpes argumention.  Thirty becombined of a state of a special-nurpes argumention. From conversation of 2 years of other pages of the recognition of a state of a special-nurpes argumention. From conversation of 2 years of other pages of the reach balls, sheet to min diameter packed in adding. The individual layers of balls are separated free each other by balls its or celluloid places. The varied is also previded with a time function of the projection of the proje		CLASSIFICATION SECULT/CONTROL = U.S. O	FFICIALS ONLY
COUNTRY Germany (Russian Zone)  DATE DISTR 8 May 1952  SUBJECT Special Purpose Assumition Stored at the MILDER SPECIAL	NTELLOFAX 21	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
SUBJECT Special Purpose Ammunition Depot  PLACE CQUIRED  DATE OF NFO.  ATTEMPT TO SUPPLEMENT SUPP		INFORMATION REPORT	CD NO.
PLACE COURTED  ATE OF NEO.  ATE	COUNTRY	Germany (Russian Zone)	DATE DISTR 8 May 1952
Thirty boxearloads of artillery amountion and 24 hoxearloads of arminition artived at the interest of assumition depot on 10 December 1971 and 25 rebru arrived at the interest of assumition of a special purpose arountion. From conversation of Soviet dept personnel, the assumition was of a characteristic of a special purpose arountion. From conversation of Soviet dept personnel, type. It is described as a heavy projectile 500 mm long and 100 mm in diameter dept and with a detachable warional, 300 mm long. The variand sorms to contain 25 several layers of shranen balls, about 10 mm in diameter, packed in wadding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by ballite or cellulaid plates. The mention is also provided with a time fuse.  The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the arminition dept amountion could be possibility that the arminition is not fitted with first, it cannot be fired by nortars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the arminition is not fitted with first, it cannot be fired by nortars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the arminition is not fitted with first, it cannot be fired by nortars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the arminition is not fitted with first, it cannot be fired by nortars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the arminition is not fitted with first, it cannot be fired by nortars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the arminition is cellulated with first that the arminition is not fitted with first that the arminition is not fitted with first that the arminition is not fitted with first the dropped. The 25 man arminition is not fitted with first that the arminition is not fitted with first the dropped of the possibility with the depth of the first possibility and the arminition is not fitted with first possibility and the first possibility and the arminition is not fitted with first possibility and the first possibility and the first possibility and the	SUBJECT	Special Purpose Ammunition Stored at the Wilmersdorf Ammunition Depot	NO. OF PAGES 1
Thirty boxcarloads of artillery amounties  and 2h boxcarloads of arministration and 2h boxcarloads of a special-purpose amountion. From conversation of Sevie dept personnel. The two chipments were also observed the arministration was of a unique type. It is described as a heavy projectic 30c mm long and 100 mm in diame and with a detachable warhood, 300 mm long. The warhand sorms to centain 25 several layers of character layers of balls are separated from each other by balcilite or cellulated plates. The unread is also provided with a time fuse.  The projectile is barrel-fired and not a cortar type small. The projectile is barrel-fired and not a cortar type small. The arministration is not fitted with first it cannot be fired by nectors nor can it be dropped arministration of the possibility that the arministration is not fitted with first, it cannot be fired by nectors nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the arministration is not fitted with first, it cannot be fired by nectors nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the arministration is not fitted with first, it cannot be fired by nectors nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the arministration is not fitted with first, it cannot be fired by nectors nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the arministration is not fitted with first, it cannot be fired by nectors nor can it be dropped. The second of the possibility that the arministration is not fitted with first and possibility that the arministration is not fitted with first possibility that the arministration is not fitted with first possibility and possibil	PLACE ACQUIRED	25X1
Thirty bexearloads of artillery amunition and 24 bexearloads of artillery amunition and 24 bexearloads of artillery amunition depot on 18 December 1951 and 25 Febru 1952 respectively. The two chipments were also observed  25X1 nonts consisted of a special-purpose amunition. From conversation of Soviet depot personnel, it described as a heavy projectile 500 mm long and 100 mm in diame and with a detachable varioned, 300 mm long. The varional sowns to contain 25 several layers of shranel balls, about 10 mm in diametry-spacked in adding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by baledite or celluloid plates. The various is also provided with a time fuse.  The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the arminition of the projection of the large with an explosive which is stored at the arminition of the first of with an explosive which is stored at the arminition of the first of with an explosive which is stored at the arminition of the projection of the large with an explosive which is stored at the arminition of the first of with an explosive which is stored at the arminition of the projection of the large with an explosive which is stored at the arminition of the projection of the large with an explosive which is stored at the arminition of the projection of the large with an explosive which is stored at the arminition of the projection of the large with a possibility that the arminition is designed for a heavy nortar having a short barrel. During forld art 1, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the German Arty. *  25X1    December No. 2	DATE OF	25X1
Thirty becarloads of artillery amountion  and 21 becarloads of artillery amountion  arrived at the literator amountion of properties and 25 reportedly  arrived at the literator amountion of properties and 25 reportedly  arrived at the literator amountion of properties and 25 reportedly  25x1  becarloads of artillery amountion of properties and 25 reportedly  arrived at the literator amountion depot on 18 December 1951 and 25 reportedly  these ship on the amountion of sevio depot personnel,  type. It is described as a heavy projectile 300 mm long and 100 mm in diameter, packed in wadding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by bakelite or celluloid plates. The warhead is also provided with a time fusc.  The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the amountion depot manual in the projectile was not in use curing ord and In the amountion of the projectile was not in use curing ord and In the amountion is designed for a heavy nortar having a short barrel. During lord at I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliter were used by the Serman Army.  Por sketch of projectile, see Amex.  Por sketch of pro
Thirty becarloads of artillery amountion  and 21 becarloads of artillery amountion  arrived at the literator amountion of properties and 25 reportedly  arrived at the literator amountion of properties and 25 reportedly  arrived at the literator amountion of properties and 25 reportedly  25x1  becarloads of artillery amountion of properties and 25 reportedly  arrived at the literator amountion depot on 18 December 1951 and 25 reportedly  these ship on the amountion of sevio depot personnel,  type. It is described as a heavy projectile 300 mm long and 100 mm in diameter, packed in wadding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by bakelite or celluloid plates. The warhead is also provided with a time fusc.  The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the amountion depot manual in the projectile was not in use curing ord and In the amountion of the projectile was not in use curing ord and In the amountion is designed for a heavy nortar having a short barrel. During lord at I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliter were used by the Serman Army.  Por sketch of projectile, see Amex.  Por sketch of pro
Thirty boxcarloads of artillery amunition and 2h boxcarloads of artillery amunition are 2h boxcarloads of artillery amunition depot on 18 December 1951 and 25 Februs 1952 respectively. The two shipments were also observed the same of sovie depot personnel, the same sunition was of a unique type. It is described as a heavy projectic 300 mm long and b00 mm in diame and with a detachable warhoad, 300 mm long. The varional series to contain 25 several layers of strained balls, about 10 mm in diameter, packed in wadding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by bakalite or celluloid plates. The warhoad is also provided with a time function of the projectile is barrol-fired and not a mortar type smill.  The projectile is alloredly filled with an explosive which is abored at the amunition depot amunition of the projectile is barrol-fired by nortars nor can it be drepped. There is a possibility that the amunition is designed for a heavy nortar having a short barrel. During lord ar I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the German Arry.  Por sketch of projectile, see Amery.  Por sketch of proje	OF THE UNITED STATE	a minute mile arrange or title to engineer the $10 to $2.00 to $10 to $1
Thirty boxcarloads of artillery amountion  and 24 boxcarloads of arminition depot on 18 December 1921 and 25 Febru 1952 respectively. The two shipments were also observed  25X1  ments consisted of a special-purpose amountion. From conversation of Sevio depot personnel,  type. It is described as a heavy projectic 900 mm long and 000 mm in diane and with a detachable warhoad, 300 mm long. The variend seems to contain 25 several layers of shramel balls, about 10 mm in diameter, packed in madding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by bakalita or celluloid plates. The warhoad is also provided with a time fuse.  The projectile is alloredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the arminition capat amountion. The projectile is alloredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the arminition. The projectile is alloredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the arminition of the length and diameter is unusual. As the amountion is not fitted with fins, it cannot be fired by mertars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the arminition is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During lord are I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the Serman Army.  25X1  Decument No. 2.  No Change in Class.  For sketch of projectile, see Ambex.  Decument No. 2.  No Change in Class.  For sketch of projectile, see Ambex.  Decument No. 2.  No Serman Army.  See Extraction  Decument No. 2.  Authority Heavy Serman Army.  See Extraction  Decument No. 3.  See Ambex.	ATHON OF ITS CONTE	THE REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORB IS PROHIBITED	ili. UUI
Thirty boxcarloads of artillery amounition and 2h boxcarloads of arminition arrived at the illnerodorf amunition depot on 18 Docember 1991 and 25 Febru 1992 respectively. The two shipments were also observed these shipments consisted of a special-purpose amunition. From conversation of Sovio depot personnel, the amunition was of a unique type. It is described as a heavy projectile 500 mm long and 600 mm in diame and with a detachable varioad, 300 nm long. The varioad serms to contain 25 several layers of shrannel balls, about 10 mm in diameter, packed in wadding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by bakelite or celluloid plates. The varioad is also provided with a time fuze.  The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the arminition of its length am diameter is unusual. As the amunition is not fitted with firs, it cannot be fired by mertars nor can it be drepped. There is a possibility that the amunition is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During bord and if a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the German Arry.  Tor sketch of projectile, see Ameex.  Document No. 2.  Ro Change in Class.  Document No. 2.  Robust Indianal Class.  Document No. 2.  Robu
Thirty boxcarloads of artillery amounition and 2h boxcarloads of arminition arrived at the illnerodorf amunition depot on 18 Docember 1991 and 25 Febru 1992 respectively. The two shipments were also observed these shipments consisted of a special-purpose amunition. From conversation of Sovio depot personnel, the amunition was of a unique type. It is described as a heavy projectile 500 mm long and 600 mm in diame and with a detachable varioad, 300 nm long. The varioad serms to contain 25 several layers of shrannel balls, about 10 mm in diameter, packed in wadding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by bakelite or celluloid plates. The varioad is also provided with a time fuze.  The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the arminition of its length am diameter is unusual. As the amunition is not fitted with firs, it cannot be fired by mertars nor can it be drepped. There is a possibility that the amunition is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During bord and if a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the German Arry.  Tor sketch of projectile, see Ameex.  Document No. 2.  Ro Change in Class.  Document No. 2.  Robust Indianal Class.  Document No. 2.  Robu
Thirty boxcarloads of artillery amountion and 2h boxcarloads of armunition arrived at the "liberedorf armunition depot on 18 December 1951 and 25 Febru 1952 respectively. The two chipments were also observed the second depot personnel, the second depot personnel, the amountion was of a unique type. It is described as a heavy projectile 500 mm long and 400 mm in diame and with a detachable warhoad, 300 mm long. The warhoad seems to contain 25 several layers of shramel balls, about 10 mm in diameter, packed in wadding. The individual layers of balls are separated free each other by bakelite or celluloid plates. The varhoad is also provided with a time fuze.  The projectile is alteredly filled with an explosive which is stered at the amountion depot amountion. The individual layers of the filled with an explosive which is stered at the amountion depot to a possibility flat the amountion. As the amountion is not fitted with fins, it cannot be fired by nortars nor can it be drepped. There is a possibility flat the amountion is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During Lordd at I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the German Army.  Por sketch of projectile, see Ambex.  Distribution  Possibility   and 2h bexcarloads of armunition depot on 18 December 1951 and 25 Febru 1952 respectively. The two shippents were also observed  25X1  ments consisted of a special-purpose argumition. From conversation of Sovie depot personnel, the argumition was of a unique type. It is described as a heavy projectile 300 mm long and 400 mm in diame and with a detechable warload, 300 mm long. The varband sears to contain 25 several layers of shranel balls, about 10 mm in diameter, packed in wadding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by backlite or celluloid plates. The varband is also provided with a time fuze.  The projectile is alteredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the argumition depot are in use curing following. The 2:1 proportion of its longen and diameter is unusual. As the argumition is not fitted with fins, it cannot be fired by nortars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the argumition is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During lord ar I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the German Army.  25X1    Decument No. 2		Minto barned and of antillant amounting	2:
arrived at the dimension amountain depot on 18 December 1951 and 25 Febru 1952 respectively. The two shipments were also observed these shipments consisted of a special-purpose amountain. From conversation of Sovio depot personnel, the amountain was of a unique type. It is described as a heavy projectile 300 mm long and 400 mm in diame and with a detachable warhead, 300 mm long. The variend souns to contain 25 several layers of shranel balls, about 10 mm in diameter, packed in wadding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by bakelite or celluloid plates. The warhead is also provided with a time fuze.  The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the amountain depot was not in use during horld and II. The 2rd proportion of its length and diameter is unusual. As the amountion is not fitted with fins, it cannot be firred by mortars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the amountion is designed for a heavy nortar having a short barrel. During horld and I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the Serman Army.  Por sketch of projectile, see Amex.  Por sketch of projectile, see Amex.  December No. 2  Rother No. 2		and 2) boxcarloads of armunition ments consisted of a special-purpose ammunition. From conversation of Sevic depot personnel, the ammunition was of a unique type. It is described as a heavy projectile 300 mm long and 100 mm in diameter and with a detachable warhoad, 300 mm long. The warhoad sense to contain 25 several layers of shrannel balls, about 10 mm in diameter, packed in wadding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by bakelite or celluloid plates. The warhoad is also provided with a time fuze.  The projectile is alteredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the ammunition depot ammunition of its length and diameter is unusual. As the ammunition is not fitted with fine, it cannot be fixed by mertars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the ammunition is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During world ar I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the German Arry.  Por sketch of projectile, see Ammex.  Por sketch of projectile, see Ammex.  Index   Marking   M		arrived at the lilmersdorf amounition depot on 1	8 December 1951 and 25 Febru
ments consisted of a special-purpose ammunition. From conversation of Sovie depot personnel, the ammunition was of a unique type. It is described as a heavy projectile 500 mm long and hoo mm in diame and with a detachable warhead, 300 nm long. The warhead seems to contain 25 several layers of shrannel balls, about 10 mm in diameter, packed in wadding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by bakelite or celluloid plates. The warhead is also provided with a time fuze.  The projectile is barrel-fired and not a mortar type Shell.  The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the armunition was not in use curing forld as II. The 2:1 proportion of its length and diameter is unusual. As the ammunition is not fitted with fins, it cannot be fired by nertars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the ammunition is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During world far I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the forman Army.  Por sketch of projectile, see Ammex.  *	051/4		observed these shi depct personnel, type. It is described as a heavy projectile SOC mm long and MOO mm in diame and with a detachable warhoad, 300 mm long. The varhoad soms to contain 25 several layers of shrannel balls, about 10 mm in diameter, packed in wadding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by bakelite or celluloid plates. The varhoad is also provided with a time fuze.  The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the arrunition depot amountion was not in use during world. In the 2:1 proportion of its length and diameter is unusual. As the arrunition is not fitted with firs, it cannot be fired by mortars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the arrunition is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During world far I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the Serman Army.    Por sketch of projectile, see Amex.*    Decument No. 2.  No Change in Class.                  *	25%	ments consisted of a special-purpose ammunition.	From conversation of Sovie and with a detachable warhoad, 300 mm long. The warhoad seems to contain 25 several layers of shrappel balls, about 10 mm in diameter, packed in wadding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by bakelite or celluloid plates. The warhoad is also provided with a time fuze.  The projectile is alteredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the amountation depot amountation was not in use during world for 11. The 21 proportion of its longun and diameter is unusual. As the amountain is not fitted with fins, it cannot be fired by mortars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the amountion is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During world for 1, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the Serman Army.  Por sketch of projectile, see Amex.  Por sketch of projectile, see Amex.  Document No. 2.  Ro Change in Class.  Document No. 2.		depot personnel. the ammuni	tion was of a unique several layers of shrappel balls, about 10 mm in diameter, packed in wadding. The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by bakelite or celluloid plates. The warhead is also provided with a time fuze.  The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the amountation depot amountion.  The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the amountation depot amountation.  2:1 proportion of its length and diameter is unusual. As the amountion is not fitted with fins, it cannot be fired by mertars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the amountion is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During world ar I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the German Army.    Por sketch of projectile, see Ansex.*    Decument No. 2  No Change in Class.  Because Rod.                  		type. It is described as a heavy projectile 000	mm long and 400 mm in diame
The individual layers of balls are separated from each other by bakelite or celluloid plates. The warhead is also provided with a time fuze.  The projectile is barrel-fired and not a mortar type shell.  The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the armunition cepot		and with a detachable warhead, 300 mm long. The	warnead seems to contain 25 diameter packed in wadding.
celluloid plates. The warhead is also provided with a time fuze.  The projectile is barrel-fired and not a mortar type shell.  The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the argunition depot was not in use during World are II. The 25 amount it on its length are diameter is unusual. As the argunition is not fitted with fins, it cannot be fired by mortars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the argunition is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During World are I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the German Army.    Decument No. 2-  No Change in Class.  Because of the instance of the instance of the projectile, see Annex.  25X1  Decument No. 2-  No Change in Class.  Because of the instance of		several layers of shraphet balls, about 10 mm in	m each other by bakelite or
The projectile is barrel-fired and not a mortar type shell.  The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the argumition clept  argumition  2:1 proportion of its length and diameter is unusual. As the argumition is not fitted with fins, it cannot be fired by mortars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the argumition is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During world at I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the Serman Army.    Decument No. 2-  No Change in Class.  Because No.  Decument No. 2-  No Change in Class.  Because No.  Auth.: HE 75-2  Date:18 SEP-1978 By  CLASSIFICTION SECRET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS OFFI		celluloid plates. The varied is also provided	with a time fuze.
The projectile is alleredly filled with an explosive which is stored at the armunition depot    The 25 annunition		the projectile is barrel-fired and	! not a mortar type snell.
Document No. 2-  No Change In Class.  Document No. 2-  No Change In Cl		The projectile is allesedly filled with an explo	sive which is stored at the
2:1 proportion of its length and diameter is unusual. As the ammunition is not fitted with fins, it cannot be fired by mertars nor can it be dropped. There is a possibility that the ammunition is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During World Far I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the Serman Army.  25X1  Document No. 2  No Change in Class.  Because Red  Because Red  LASSIFICTION FOR SEPTION BY  Branch To: TS S  Auth.: HE 76-2  Date: -18 SEP 1978 By  CLASSIFICTION FOR SEPTION BY  STATE  BANY RESER DISTRIBUTION		ammunition depot	The 25
not fitted with fins, it cannot be fired by mortars nor can it be dropped.  There is a possibility that the ammunition is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During World Far I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the German Army.  25X1  Decument No. 2  No Change in Class.  Beciass Red  CLASSIFICATION  LASSIFICATION  DISTRIBUTION  DISTRIBUTION  DISTRIBUTION  STATE  BY  CLASSIFICATION  DISTRIBUTION  DISTRIBUTION  DISTRIBUTION  There is a possibility that the ammunition is designed for a heavy mortar having a pieces with article and article a		ammunition was not in use	curing .orid .ar ii. ine
There is a possibility that the ammunition is designed for a heavy mortar having a short barrel. During Lorld Lar I, a few such artillery pieces with about the same caliber were used by the German Army. *  25X1  Decument No. 2  No Change in Class.  Basiass Red Class. Changed To: IS S.  Auth.: HE 75-2  Date:18 SEP 1978  By  CLASSIFICATION  STATE  DATE: SAME DISTRIBUTION		2:1 proportion of its length and distrect is und	tars nor can it be dropped.
Decument No. 2  No Change in Class.  Brown Shared You Take the Total Auth.: HE 75-2  Date: -18-SEP-1978 By  CLASSIFICION FIRETIAL  CLASSIFICION FIRETIAL  STATE  HAV  NSRB DISTRIBUTION  Decument No. 2  No Change in Class.  Auth.: HE 75-2  Date: -18-SEP-1978 By  CLASSIFICION STRUCK - U.S. CEFTCIALS ONLY		There is a possibility that the amounition is de	esigned for a heavy mortar
Document No. 2  No Change in Class.  Bacinas Red  CLASSIFICATION  Decrease Annex.  Decrease No. 2  No Change in Class.  Decrease Red  Class. Shanced Yo: TS S C  Auth.: HE 15-2  Date:18 SEP 1978  By  CLASSIFICATION  DISTRIBUTION		having a short barrel. During World Far I, a fe	ew such artillery pieces with
Decument No. 2  No Change In Class.  Deciment No Change In Cl		about the same caliber were used by the German A	imy. *
Decument No. 2  No Change In Class.  Deciment No Change In Cl
Decument No. 2  No Change In Class.  Beginst Red  Etais. Ehancid To: TS S (2)  Auth.: Hfi 75-2  Date:18 SEP-1978 By  CLASSIFIC GONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY  STATE HAVY X NSRB DISTRIBUTION	05)//	For sketch	of projectile, see Annex.
No Change in Class.   Beclass Red  Class. Fhanged Yes TS S  Auth.: HE 76-2  Date:18-SEP-1978 By  CLASSIFICATION  SEXET CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY  STATE MANY * NSRB DISTRIBUTION	25X1	Washington Co.	. or projecting and summer
No Change in Class.   Beclass Red  Class. Changed Yes TS S  Auth.: HE 76-2  Bale:18-SEP-1978 By  CLASSIFIC GON FIRE DISTRIBUTION  STATE SAVY RISER DISTRIBUTION
No Change in Class.   Beclass Red  Class. Changed Yes TS S  Auth.: HE 76-2  Bale:18-SEP-1978 By  CLASSIFIC GON FIRE DISTRIBUTION  STATE SAVY RISER DISTRIBUTION
No Change in Class.    Declass Red   25
No Change in Class.   Beclass Red  Class. Changed Yes TS S  Auth.: HE 76-2  Bale:18-SEP-1978 By  CLASSIFIC GON FIRE DISTRIBUTION  STATE SAVY RISER DISTRIBUTION
No Change in Class.   Beclass Red  Class. Changed Yes TS S  Auth.: HE 76-2  Bale:18-SEP-1978 By  CLASSIFIC GON FIRE DISTRIBUTION  STATE SAVY RISER DISTRIBUTION		_	.,
No Change in Class.    Declass Red   25		ים ו	ocument No. 2
Declaration 25  Elais, Changed To: TS S C  Auth.: HE 70-2  Date:18-SEP-1978 By  CLASSIFICTION SECRET / CONTROL - II S CFFICIALS OMIN  STATE HAVY X NSRB DISTRIBUTION		1 =
CLASSIFICATION  CLASSIFICATION
Auth.: Hf. 15-2  Date:1 & SEP-1978 By  CLASSIFICATION SEPERITION  STATE HAVE X NSRB DISTRIBUTION			Change in Class.
CLASSIFICATION FIRE Date:1 & SEP 1978 By  STATE HAVY   RSRB   DISTRIBUTION		No.	O Change in Class. [] Declass 3ed 25
STATE HAVY TO NSRB DISTRIBUTION		No.	O Change in Class. 25  Declass Red 25  ass. Changed Yes TS 5 (6)
STATE RANY X KEND DISTRIBUTION		No.	O Change in Class. 25  Declass Red 25  ars. Shanged You TS S (2)
ARMY # AIR # T FBI OST PM		No.	O Change in Class. [ ] 25 ] Beclassified 25 ans. Changed Yor TS S ( ) other HE 16-2 lie:18-SEP-1978 By
	STATE	CLASSIFICACION FIDENTIAL  CLASSIFICACION FIDENTIAL  CLASSIFICACION FIDENTIAL  CLASSIFICACION FIDENTIAL  CLASSIFICACION FIDENTIAL	O Change in Class. [ ] 25 ] Beclassified 25 ans. Changed Yor TS S ( ) other HE 16-2 lie:18-SEP-1978 By

25X1

25X1

25X1

Special-Purpose Ammunition Observed at the Wilmersdorf Ammunition Depot

Legend:

- 1 Fuze with figures for its setting
- 2 Explosive

CONTRIDENTIAL
CONTRIDENTIALS OFFICIALS ONLY